1. Watch the animation (Part 4) and match up the text fragments with the captions below.

- She climbed up the tree and saw the ermine licking its lips and paws.
- She didn’t move anymore, and with her eyes closed she looked just like the dead bird.
- The ermine was so sweet and playful that Lily forgot about the dead bird.
- ‘I still need a few centimetres,’ she thought, but in that moment she slipped and fell down in the snow.
- Now she began to like the little animal.
- Lily tried to catch her, but the ermine was too fast - she just jumped on another tree.
- Lily wanted to follow her. She reached for the other tree, but her arms were too short.
2. Now, write down the text.
