

Lily and Ermine

Lily is a nice little girl. She lives with her parents in a small house in the mountains. She likes the mountains a lot; she also likes the woods with their trees, birds and all the animals.

1. Watch the first part of the animation and put the sentences in the right order.

As she came closer, she saw something on the ground - it was one of the birds.

Then she saw something in the snow.

She stood up and followed¹ them.

'Somebody has killed the little bird,' thought

Lily poked it with her stick, but the bird didn't move - it was dead.

She looked more closely and discovered some tiny tracks of an animal.

She went there to see what happened.

It had a throat wound, and Lily saw blood on the snow.

(to) poke = stoßen