

Lily and Ermine

1. Put the text fragments in the right order. Begin with the sentence matching up the caption.

It walked so close that it could feel Lily's breath. All of a sudden, Lily stretched out her hands and caught the animal.

They looked to each other for a few seconds, and then, the ermine jumped on the ground and ran away.

Lily was really sad, because she wanted to take the ermine with her.

Ermine seemed to understand Lily's words.

'You little ermine!' said Lily. 'Are you hungry? I'll take you with me, and give you something to eat. So you don't have to kill birds again.'

The ermine climbed down the tree to see what happened with Lily.

Ermine was watching her the whole time. Will they ever meet again?

Lily looked for ermine for a few more minutes, and then she went home disappointed.

It was late now, and it started to snow.

breath = Atem; (to) stretch out sth = etw ausstrecken; seem to = scheinen zu; (to) climb down = runterklettern; disappointed = enttäuscht
